

K-Love radio serves my listening area of Hampton Roads area of Virginia. I would not like my radio station displaced by LPFM broadcasters providing other programming. The local community would also miss out on the benefits of this positive radio station. Keeping FM translator services (like K_LOVE radio) are good for the community and serves the public interest. Don't let Love power FM take over these types of stations!